25. Agricultural Field Data Monitoring System:

This prototype was developed in order to monitor data of an agricultural field. This would monitor field moisture level, temperature, humidity, CO2 level and log these data to an SD card. Along with that it would upload data to a cloud server. If any data goes out of limit it would notify user with SMS.

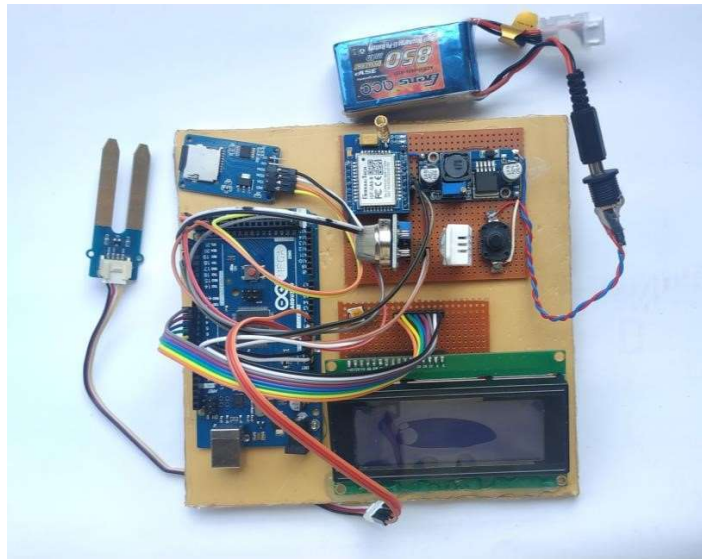

Fig: Agricultural Data Logger.